

In Sustaining All Life (SAL) people exchange effective help with each other to free themselves from emotional harm resulting from oppression and other hurts.

By taking turns listening to each other and encouraging the release of painful emotions, people can heal old hurts and become better able to think, to speak out, and to organize and lead others in building a world in which human beings and all life are valued and the environment is restored and preserved.